

WHY WE IMPLEMENTED IQSS PORTAL

IQS Solutions has always worked hard to remain at the forefront of innovation in our sector. A key aspect of our overall customer experience takes place as you and your team view our catalogue of products, and place your orders with us. As a result, we've invested in a bespoke integrated end-to-end system which provides comprehensive management of our operations, from initial receipt of an order through stock management, processing, despatch, tracking and delivery confirmation.

We'll use the platform for consolidation centre, delivery management and booking system services – affording you the most comprehensive reporting capabilities, customisable, in real-time – every time.

Our system is the result of years of research and development into the requirements of our core industries. Working with leading programming firms We have built a platform that will revolutionise the way you and your team manage the Workwear requirements of your business. With our system, you can now manage a much greater level of account detail without having to consult your Customer Service Executive.
